A writer in the Clincinnati Commercial Gazette says: "Let me offer the suggestion to parties with inundated premises, that in drying them out they will accomplish more in twenty-four hours by leaving all doors and windows open, in addition to having good steady fires, than they would in a week by having fires alone and keeping the premises closed. This is for the purpose of allowing the evaporation of vapor to escape, otherwise it settles down again in the form of dampness.

The Wife of an Ambassador recently put the following question to the daughter of one of our merchant princes at a Presidential levee "My deer I was told before I visited America, that your countrywonen were not remarksable for fine teeth. I find it quite the contrary. Take your own for instances. Pray what dentifrice do you nse." "I have used Sozalont for years and prefer lit to any other," was the response. Reader, follow her example!

A Case Not Beyond Help.
D. M. H. Hinsdale, Kenawee, Ill., adviseaus of a remarkable cure of consumption. He says: "A neighbor's wife was attacked with violent lung diseases, and pronounced beyond help from quick consumption. As a last resort the family was perauded to try Dr. Wm. Hall's Baleam for the lungs. To the astonishment of all, by the time she had used one-half dozen bottles, the was about the house doing her own work.
